Case of Kidnapping Which Occurred Right Here In Hopkinsville.

THE CHILD IS RECOVERED

Little Carrie Bell Gober Was Returned Monday To Her Hopkinsville Home.

Last Monday morning Carrie Belle Gober, age 13, who was stolen from her aunt in Hopkinsville some time in March, came to Princeton on the midnight train from Louisville. She was met at the station by T. H. King of this city and to him she told the following sensational story: She was living with her aunt, Mrs. Stella G. Northington, in Hopkinsville, who had brought her up from early childhood. It was one night early in March that her brother and sister, both of whom are grown and married, and neither of whom are under custody, stole the young girl away and came in the night to Princeton in an automobile. They left here bound for New York, where the married sister resides and where the little Gober girl, against her will and without her aunt's permission, was kept. About three weeks ago the older sister and her husband sailed for England to be present at the coronation. They left Carrie Belle in charge of a landlady in an out-of-way place in the Adirondack mountains, instructing the lady that the girl was to be sent to their relatives in Europe next fall. The little captive lost no time however, in striking a communication with Mrs. Northington in Hopkinsville, who proceeded at once, according to law, to have her niece returned to that city.

Mr. and Mrs. King entertained the little girl until time for the Hopkinsville train at 7:30 when she was sent home. She had made the whole trip by herself and confesses that she was momentarily in fear of being re-captured by her brother, who had returned to Kentucky. —Princeton News.

The little girl is now safe in the custody of Mrs. Northington, seemingly delighted to get back home.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY
War Veteran Dies at Old Soldiers' Home.

Mr. Frank M. Whitlow died yesterday morning at the Soldiers' Home at Pewee Valley, after a long illness, of cancer of the face, aged 68 years. Mr. Whitlow was a veteran of the civil war, having served in the Confederate army throughout the struggle. After the war he returned to his home in this city. He was in the employ of the Forbes Manufacturing Co., for a number of years and later resided in Cadiz. He had been at the Soldiers' Home about two years.

Mr. Whitlow is survived by five sons, Eugene, of Julien, John, of Lexington; Frank, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; R. H., of Nashville, and Victor, of California. His wife died here in 1894. He was a brother of Mr. W. H. Whitlow, of Pembroke. The remains arrived here last night.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Nat Gaither, 611 South Liberty, this morning at 9 o'clock. Interment at Riverside Cemetery.

ELVIS A. HAILE

Well Known Insurance Agent Died at Pembroke.

Alvis A. Haile, of Pembroke, a well known insurance agent, died Saturday night of a congestive chill, aged about 50 years. Mr. Haile was one of a family of six brothers and one sister, all of whom had the same initials. He was district agent of the Mutual Life of New York, and was one of the most capable insurance men in the territory. He was unmarried.

Paducah's Telephone War.

Paducah, Ky., June 26.—The telephone war here took a new turn when the Home Telephone Company inserted an advertisement in a local paper offering $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the persons guilty of destroying cables of the company. During the last 30 days numerous cable lines of the company have been destroyed. Grocers following the lead taken by the doctors, lawyers and druggists, today notified patrons they will discontinue the use of the East Tennessee phone July 1. The East Tennessee Company has enjoined the city from interfering with its use of the streets and reducing rates.

COOPER IS PARDONED

Gov. Willson Stops Prosecution of the Night Rider Witness.

TWO INDICTMENTS DISMISSED.

Says He is Satisfied Real Purpose Was to Intimidate Witness.

The indictments recently returned against Arthur Cooper were yesterday dismissed, a pardon having been issued in both cases by Gov. Willson.

One indictment charging breach of the peace was returned and later another for malicious shooting was brought in. Cooper was charged with raising a disturbance at the house of John Osteen, near Pee Dee, and it was alleged that he used profane language when Osteen refused to let him spend the night at his house and that he shot off a gun at the gate as he drove away. He was accompanied by Sgt. Thompson, a U. S. A. recruiting officer. The Governor's reasons are here given:

GOVERNOR'S REASONS.

"The accused is one of the men who turned State's evidence in the so called night rider cases, since which time he has been a marked man. The Governor is not advised, in considering this case, that any just complaint can be made of the officers, but is satisfied that the grand jury proceeding was set in motion by those whose purpose was not to prosecute an offense against the law, but to intimidate witnesses, and for this reason a full and free pardon is given."

The cases in which Cooper was chief witness have been dismissed in advance of trial, in the Christian circuit court, with the exception of two of the indictments against Dr. D. A. Amoss. It is expected that Cooper will be a principal witness in Federal court cases.

BURGLARY

Johnson's Drug Store Entered Saturday Night.

The drug store of L. A. Johnson & Co., was broken into, and robbed, Sunday morning sometime between 3 and 6 o'clock. The cash registers were relieved of $2 50, nothing else was taken. The thief, evidently, supposed that the cash for Saturday's sales was left in the tills all night. He was mistaken, for all of the money except $2 500 was put in the safe, and this had not been touched. Entrance was gained through the front gratings. The thief went through the cellar and broke the rear door to the store. He went out the same way. As yet he has not been apprehended.

Burglars at White Plains.

Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Farmers' Bank at White Plains, in Hopkins county, Friday night. They fixed the charge of dynamite in the safe door and had everything ready to blow it open, but were probably frightened off before doing so. A complete examination has not yet been made, but it is certain nothing was taken. Bloodhounds were taken to the scene, but could do nothing. The safe in the store of C. B. Dillingham was blown open and $15 80 secured and some merchandise taken from the stock. The explosion was heard shortly after 1 o'clock, but no suspicion was aroused then, and the robbery was not discovered until 5 o'clock.

Judge M. D. Brown and wife, who spent last week with relatives here, have returned to their home in Madisonville.

WAS HIGHLY CONNECTED.

Lee Well Known in Russellville, and Had Many Friends.

Russellville, Ky., June 23.—Edward Valentine Lee, the young paymaster's clerk, who has been arrested, charged with taking $46,000 from the battleship Georgia at Havana last February, is well known in this city, where he is highly connected. He is the only son of Mrs. Annie Lee, of this place, and has always been held in high esteem here. His last visit to his old home was during the summer of 1910. He admits his guilt.

The department of justice and the navy department are wrestling with the problem of procedure in the case. Lee was paymaster's clerk on the warship, and it is a question whether he should be tried by court marshal or turned over to the civil authorities.

The Poultry Yard

Very often the prettiest hens are the poorest layers.

Lawn clippings make an ideal summer green food ration.

Lighter foods are the best these warm days. Heavy food like corn heats the blood.

All the old stock that is not wanted should be disposed of before they go into molt.

Eat some of the eggs yourself. If they are worth money to anybody,
they are to you.

Already the fowls are assuming a rusty appearance. It is getting near their molting season.

The hen that lays where she happens to be, when she takes the notion to lay, is certainly setting a bad eggsample.

Do not let up in your warfare against the destructive louse army.
Lice are working havoc, and to serve measures can not be adopted to destroy them.

Use the small eggs. Give your customers the large ones. So shall they call you a square dealer and stick by you and bring you more and more customers. Besides,
it's only fair and makes you feel better.

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chances of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater,
but not if Electric Bitters are used,
as Robert Madison, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at all druggists.

A Bride at Seventeen.

Poor little girl, to learn so soon
That life is a dull and humdrum thing!
To wither and die before your June,
A flower plucked in the early spring.

Poor little girl, to be robbed of all Life's loveliest years ere they have begun;

Your airy castles so soon to fall,
The glamor gone and your dreaming done!

Poor little girl! Led to the doom
Of the rose that falls ere its leaves
uncurl,
Of the flower plucked ere it comes to bloom—

And you think it glorious—poor little girl!

Wheat at 9, Bread at 6.

Owensboro, Ky., June 19.—Emmett Haynes, a farmer of Davies county, who raised something like 4,000 bushels of wheat this year, has made record that will no doubt stand for many years. He cut his wheat at 9 a.m., thrashed it at 11 a.m., delivered it to the mill at 3 p.m., it was ground to flour at 5 p.m., and Haynes ate biscuits at 6 p.m. made of the wheat cut at 9 a.m.

NOTICE!

I wish to say to my friends and the public, that I have resigned my position with the Forbes Mfg. Co., horse shoeing shop, and will have interest in the H. W. Dorris horse shoeing, Cooper's old stand, and have my same hand that worked for me at Forbes' shop and has worked for me for the past ten years, and also have Mr. McDonald, who has had charge of H. W. Dorris' shoeing shop since I quit two years ago, and will say that you can't find two better shoers in the city than these two men, and I, myself, can shoe a horse some, and will say your horse will be repaired right at our shop, just like it was my own. Every shoe guaranteed to give satisfaction.

WAR SHOULD BE MADE FAIR

Writer Thinks Civilization Might Invent Code Something Like That of the Duello.

War is now carried on in an uncivilized fashion. It is fought as if all participants were savages. What is politely called strategy is taking the enemy unawares and not giving him a fair show. Formerly, when two men had a quarrel, they settled their differences in the manner of modern warfare. But now, where even one man stabs another in the back, or men shoot each other at sight because of a grievance or an agreement that they are enemies, we justly say that they are uncivilized, and in the measure that they fall upon one another like wild beasts we declare that they render uncivilized the communities in which they live. On the other hand, where the code duello exists, and the civilization is of a high order, there is a court of honor to determine among gentlemen of similar connections whether the challenge is justified or not, and something of the conditions under which the fight shall take place. Unfair conditions are not allowed, seconds and an umpire are insisted upon, as well as the presence of surgeons, to prevent unnecessary loss of life. A duel, fought under the code, is a more civilized proceeding than a Kentucky shooting. Could not civilization invent similar amenities for fight between nations?—Atlantic Monthly.

Bookseller's Son Sold for $2 a Volume That Not Long After Brought $20,000.

Charles K. Pottle, son of Earl K. Pottle, a veteran bookseller, let a book of great value get out of his hands for $2 when he sold an ancient volume of "The Colonial Laws of Massachusetts" to a stranger.

Mr. Pottle's father learned, he says, that the same volume was sold in New York city recently for $20,000.

"I was not in the store at the time," said Mr. Pottle. "My son, who was in charge, was approached one day by a man who seemed to be an authority on old books. He saw the volume of laws, which was printed in 1642, and bought it for $2.

"On Saturday Major Holcomb came into the store and showed me a newspaper clipping telling of the sale of the same volume for $20,000. It was a pretty good fortune to let go, but we did not realize at that time that it was so valuable."—St. Paul Letter to New York Sun.

TOO REALISTIC.

A still life by Jim van Huysen in the museum at The Hague was recently injured, but it is believed that the perpetrator was neither vandal nor thief. The picture represents a basket or fruit on which a number of insects have gathered. On a pale yellow apple which is the centerpiece in the cluster of fruit, is a large fly, painted so true to nature, so say the officials of the gallery, that the canvas was injured by some one who endeavored to "shoo" it and brought his cane or hand too close to the canvas.

"A tribute to the painter's genius," says the letter recording the fact, "for which the work had to suffer."

WAKENING THE DUKE.

The great Duke of Wellington was among those upon whom sermons have a soporific effect. A strange clergyman who was preaching at the church at Strathfieldsaye where the duke was a regular attendant was much surprised by the action of the verger, who at the conclusion of the sermon came up the pulpit stairs, opened the door, slammed it violently, and then reopened it for the preacher to pass out. In the vestry he inquired the meaning of this procedure. "Oh," replied the man, "we always do that to wake the duke."

A TRIUMPH.

"Do you think it is becoming?" she asks, appearing in her newest gown.

"Don't bother about that!" gushes the friend. "It is perfect! It is simply delicious! My dear, it makes you look absolutely helpless."—Judge.

DESCRIPTIVE.

"I want to embroider this tapestry love story. What stitch would you use?"

"If it is a matrimonial romance, I should think cross stitch."

HOW TO BE YOUNG AT 100

Dr. Robert Bell of England Advises Only Vegetable Food, Raw or Little Cooked.

"Man is the only animal on the face of the earth who cooks his food and therefore destroys its value," Dr. Robert Bell said, in a lecture on "Man's Natural Diet." "If only we would take a lesson from wild animals by adopting the diet which nature has provided for us, we should have a better, healthier and longer life." But Dr. Bell does not advocate that mere man should imitate the tiger in the manner of his meals. "All flesh diet should be banned," he says, "and our food should consist entirely of vegetables, fruits, cereals, and these cooked as little as possible." Dr. Bell would have children brought up in this way. He believes that children would be satisfied with whole-meal bread, raw vegetables and fruit for their dinner and never crave for any other food if they were informed that it was good for their health and conducive to a green old age.

Dr. Bell strongly recommends raw peas as a delicious and a healthy dish. But he does not believe that nature intends man to eat grass; his teeth are not adapted to it. The lecturer added that every human being ought to attain an age of at least one hundred and twenty-eight years. "That there so few centenarians among us," he said, "can certainly be attributed to our going against nature's decrees."

ORIGIN OF PLAYING CARDS

It is Generally Believed That They Were Made First at Venice About 1370.

Although it is commonly reported that playing cards were invented in France in 1382 to divert Charles VI, D'Allemagne, a French writer on the subject, mentions them as being in use in Belgium in 1379, and probably something analogous to them—marked disks or counters—have been employed in the east from remote antiquity. It is now usually thought that it was in Italy playing cards were first made, about 1370, and at Venice. The attempt to connect their invention with astrology arises from the four suits and 52 cards in all, being associated in ingenious minds with four seasons and the number of weeks in the year. It does not appear likely that there was anything more associated with the cards than amusement at the first, though gambling was a vice with the Greeks and Romans long before the Christian era, and games for gain with some kinds of counters were doubtless found among them.

HERO'S NEGLECTED GRAVE.

Congressman Curtis H. Gregg is trying to induce congress to erect a suitable monument over the grave of Major-General Arthur St. Clair of Revolutionary fame, who lies in a neglected grave at Greensburg. In 1832 a plain monument of brown sandstone was erected over his grave by the Masonic fraternity of Greensburg and vicinity. The monument is fast disintegrating, and it will be but a matter of a very short time until the inscriptions will be illegible, as they are now almost obliterated.

Grass and weeds are suffered to grow on his burial lot, and only occasionally is it cleared, and many have passed it by judging not that the ashes of one of America's noblest men lay near.

QUEER FREAKS IN LANGUAGE.

If one of the difficulties of learning Samoan is that each noble has a private dialect of his own, the difficulty is matched by a linguistic complication in certain other parts of Polynesia. In the Gilbert islands the men and women speak literally a different language. The difficulty of mutual intercourse is overcome by making the women use the masculine tongue when talking to the men. Among themselves it is taboo. And the men do not trouble their heads about the other.

SO EASY.

"How did you convert young Mrs. Torkins to your views for women idea?" one suffragette asked.

"I designed a perfectly fetching campaign costume and showed it to her."

EXPLANATION.

"Why is a hand of iron in a glove of velvet so successful?"

"Because the iron is out for the steal and the velvet for the pile."

WIT OF DOUGLAS JERROLD

Some Specimens of the Humor and Kindness of the Famous British Man of Letters.

Some stories of Douglas Jerrold, man of letters and wit, are given in W. Teignmouth Shore's "Charles Dickens and His Friends." Here are a few specimens of his wit: "That air always carries me away when I hear it," said a bore. "Can nobody whistle it?" asked Jerrold. A certain man went away to Australia, leaving his wife unprovided for in England; he treated her, said Jerrold, with "unremitting kindness." As an example of his kindlier wit may be repeated his answer when asked by Charles Knight to write his epitaph: "Good Knight," said Jerrold. He had a quaint, whimsical way of putting things. One bitterly cold night he was walking home with companions across Westminster bridge. "I blame nobody," he remarked, "but they call this May!" Of Jerrold's real kindness the following story is a pleasant confirmation. While living at Putney he had a carriage built for him. At the coach maker's one day he was looking at the immaculate varnish on the back of the vehicle. "Its polish is perfect now," he said, "but the urchins will soon cover it with scratches." "But, sir, I can put on a few spikes that will keep them off." "No; to me a thousand scratches on my carriage would be more welcome than one on the hand of a footsore lad, to whom a stolen lift might be a godsend."

DRIVER IS SELF-POSSESSED

When Horse Plunged Into Show Window He Collected Price Tags of Damaged Articles.

Persons who witnessed a trolley car accident the other day were called upon for a peculiar kind of testimony. A horse had plunged through the window of a small dry goods store. The struggle of the horse, the cracking of glass, the imprecations of the storekeeper and the exclamations of the bystanders combined to raise pandemonium on that corner, but in all the confusion the driver retained sufficient presence of mind to gather up the injured show window garments with price tags attached. When the excitement had died down a little he showed his tags to the most responsible looking persons in the crowd and said:

"I want you to take notice that these things have been marked down to certain prices and when it comes to settling claims for damages I shall rely upon you to testify for me in case the storekeeper boosts up the figures to what he claims was the original price. That is often done in store window smashups. Twice we have had to pay about two prices for the goods damaged because the price tags had got lost, and I don't intend to be worked that way this time."

KISSING FESTIVAL.

A great kissing occasion is the May day celebration at Helston, in Cornwall, England, known as Flora day. And some agility is required, as well as a capacity for kissing. In theory, the front and back doors of every house are supposed to be left open. The young men, and the giddy old ones, dance in at a front door at the top of a street, out at the back door, into the back door of the next house, and out at the front, into the front of the next, and out at the back, thus never passing through the same house twice. And from every woman the adventurers meet in their strange progress they may claim a kiss.

SOUVENIR FIEND PASSES.

The historic Longfellow house in Portland has closed its doors for this season, says the Kennebec (Me.) Journal. The number of visitors the last season far exceeds that of last year and the same thing remains true of this year as of former years; there has been no injury to the house, not a thing has been taken and one is surprised when told that in the ten years in which it has been open to the public there has been no damage done to any part of the house and furnishings.

FIRST ON RECORD.

"I wonder when it first struck a wife to be impertinent to her husband?"

"I guess it was in the Garden of Eden when Eve gave (apple) sauce to Adam."

CURRENT COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

C. E. McCormick, editor of the Bullitt Pioneer, has been forced to resign the office of County Superintendent of Schools, on account of his continued ill health.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty against Judge E. C. Goodpasture, charged with offering to bribe Representative J. Q. McDonald, of the Tennessee Legislature.

Before the same committee, Richard Yates, former governor of Illinois recounted stories told him by men, now deceased, about bribes offered to them. Well, dead men never tell tales.

Geo. W. Hinman, editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean expressed the "moral conviction" that there had been a "jack-pot" at every session of the legislature during the twelve years of his residence in Chicago, before the Loimer investigating committee, the other day. It seems that Mr. Loimer held a straight royal flush, when the 1909 "jack-pot" was called.

Judge O'Rear is still busy trying to explain that his meeting with Dr. Amos at Princeton was a casual call from the general and not a conference to business. This may be true, but the reputation Judge O'Rear has borne in Western Kentucky for four years justifies the belief that he and the doctor, in spite of political differences, are "birds of a feather," who might have been expected to flock together."

Two weeks from to-day the Paducah News-Democrat's Contest party will sail for Europe. The names of those who will comprise the party leaving here are: Misses Mamie Noble and Ada Brazelton and Mrs. Gerald Sanders James of Paducah, Miss Bessie Lee Nance, of Maxon's Mills, Ky., Miss Uva Trout, of Arlington, Ky., Miss Lena Standford, of Rock Castle, Ky., and Mr. George Browne, of the News-Democrat, will accompany the party on the entire trip.

Dog Steals A Ride

Capt. Moody of the Hopkinsville accommodation put off at Trenton Sunday morning a fine bird dog that boarded his train of his own accord and unnoticed at Pembroke and so stole a ride here. The dog was the property of Mr. James Garnett, who was notified and recovered his property. We must say the dog showed good taste in wanting to visit Trenton, even if he did steal a ride. —Trenton Progress.

Oratory.

That William Jennings Bryan is the world's greatest platform orator is an acknowledged fact. While men may differ with his political views, they are unanimous in according to his eloquence the palm of pre-eminence and in placing him in the circle of the great masters of human speech. He possesses every faculty of the orator and to a superlative degree. His conceptions are original, his scope of vision complete and all-absorbing, his analysis penetrating, microscopic and logical, his diction strong and graceful, his utterance full of the charm of the exquisite music of the voice. And above all, he possesses that magnetism which transports his hearers into the realm of his discourse and makes them not only understand but feel his very thoughts. There is a popular notion that the age of oratory is dead, but that will never bewhile William Jennings Bryan retains his power of oral utterance.—Albany (New York) Times-Union.

DEFENDANTS IN MILTON OLIVER SUIT ARE NAMED

Identity of Alleged "Night Riders" Made Public For the First Time.

Paducah, Ky., June 24—Names of the defendants in the suit of Milton Oliver, formerly of Lamasco, Lyon county, but now residing in Metropolis, Ill., against alleged night riders for $50,000 damages have just been made public. The defendants reside in Trigg, Lyon, Caldwell and Christian counties. The suit was filed in the United States Court here. Helpless as a Baby.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie B. Kirby, in a letter from this place, says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and saw it was helping me at once. Now, I can work all day." As a tonic for weak women nothing has been found for fifty years that would take the place of Cardui. It will surely do you good. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients and has a specific, curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle today. At your druggist's.

GREATEST COW.

Holstein-Friesian Owned in the State of Missouri.

It remained for the Missouri College of Agriculture, at Columbia, Mo., to raise and develop the champion dairy cow of all the world. She is Missouri Chief Josephine, a Holstein-Friesian cow, which produced in a twelve months' test 26,825 pounds of milk, an average of 73.49 pounds of milk daily for 365 days. Her highest record for one day was 110.2 pounds. This record is the more remarkable because no special preparation had been made for this test, and Josephine did her full duty in the regular dairy herd of the University, dropping five calves in five and one-half years.

Not only has Missouri Chief Josephine's record smashed all previous world's records for milk production, but the per cent. of butter fat increased daily, so that this cow undoubtedly produced more butter during a period of twelve months than any other cow that has ever been tested in the world.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Hopkinsville People.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one special kidney medicine that cures permanently and there is plenty of proof right here in Hopkinsville.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now states that the cure was lasting.

Miss L. A. Hester, 417 Cleveland St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I believe there is little need of anyone suffering from backache when Doan's Kidney Pills can be had. The prompt and thorough relief which followed their use in my case has given me great faith in their merits. In the summer of 1908, I suffered greatly from soreness and lameness across the small of my back and other difficulties arising from weak kidneys. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from L. A. Johnson & Co.'s Pharmacy, were all that was required to free me from the distressing pain in my back, and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and although four years have since elapsed, I still hold a high opinion of them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Fashions in Bulgaria.
Bulgaria believes in fringes, and they are over all with the rare exceptions where the underskirt, always of the best of white linen, may be scalloped at the bottom and even then the fringe effect is used in the over tunic, for the gathering of the many threads suggests to the wearer the numbers of their nations, as is their peculiar red dyed reminder of their blood, and the flowers, and grains, and fruits, embroidered on their gowns represent their industry.

Many ill's come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

Flower Keeps Its Freshness.
A common South African flower possesses the valuable property of keeping fresh for two months or more after cutting. It is white star of Bethlehem, producing a compact spike of flowers on a stiff, erect stalk 18 inches or two feet long. The flowers are of a thin and papery tissue, all white except the yellow anthers. It can be sent over as a cut flower from South Africa to England, and then lasts for weeks in water.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings back relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

Before and After.
When a girl is engaged to a man she believes him when he tells her he would love to have her walk on him with her tiny feet; after she is married to him she would be satisfied to have him willing to put her rubbers on her without acting as if it were killing him.

Moving Spirit of Today.
Petrol, which may be described as the moving spirit of the age, is being applied so freely nowadays to locomotion generally that future generations will probably wonder however we managed to get along without it.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures toothache, ear ache, sore throat. Heals cuts, bruises, scalds. Stops any pain.

Dirt and Disease.
Dirt is the "perfect culture" of all disease and of all that delights in disease. There the microbes of all plagues live and move and have their being undisturbed by the broom or the mop, unafraid of the smell of soap, and never awakened from their rest by the light from any lamp of knowledge that constitutes the science of modern times.

MANY USES FOR ASBESTOS

Theater Curtains, Pipe Coverings, Wire Insulation and Other Things Made of the Mineral.

Asbestos plays a more important part in the national life than is generally credited to it. The well-made asbestos theater curtain assures the safety of the audience, from stage fires. In the home the asbestos covering of the furnace and heating pipes, or of the gas logs in the open fireplace, makes for economy and comfort. Wherever steam is used as a motive power in factories, on trains or on ships, it is asbestos packing that holds the steam to its work; on the other hand, if electricity is employed, the wires are probably insulated by asbestos tape and the adjacent parts are made of asbestos "lumber." Asbestos shingles and sheathing make houses cooler in summer and warmer in winter and reduce the fire risk. From the ice house, where asbestos protects the brine pipes from the heated air, to the foundry, where it shields the workman from molten metal, in the workshop, the home or the place of amusement, asbestos contributes materially to human welfare.

COULDN'T SEE SMALL OBJECT

Waiter—Will you have a steak, sir?

Guest—Yes, and make it a large one—my eyesight is very poor.

WOULD EMULATE THE EMU.

"We must wage this battle until we get our oppressor, man, reduced to the happy condition of the emu family," said the suffragette orator to her women auditors.

"When the lady emu decides that it is time to raise a family she sounds a call like blowing into the bunghole of a barrel. Mr. Emu comes and scrapes a hole in the ground and by and by there are a dozen eggs there. The male sits on those eggs, hatches 'em out after eight weeks and then takes care of the youngsters until the next hatching season, when they go to the mother. Now that is equal labor and equal responsibility and it is what we women are entitled to."

"Good! Good!" shouted the auditors.—New York Sun.

SCOTCH SABBATARIANISM.

Looking out of the window used to be an indictable offense on the Sabbath. In 1709 the Kirk Session of Edinburgh, "taking into consideration that the Lord's Day is profaned by people standing in the streets, vaguing in the fields and gardens, as also by idly gazing out of the windows, it is ordered that each session take its turn to watch the streets on Sabbath, and to visit each suspected house in each parish by elders and deacons with beadle and officers, and after sermon, when the day is long, to pass through the streets, and to reprove such as transgress and inform on such as do not refrain."

JUDGE SEES DANGER.

"Much of the judicial power has been shifted to the executive branch of the government, and the question now is not what will the courts of New York and Chicago and other places say, but what will Washington say? I say this is un-American and directly opposed to the constitution, which provides that there shall be three separate departments of government. With the balance maintained between judicial, executive and legislative branches of the government there can be no danger to the individual."—Judge Grosscup.

A DISCOVERY.

"I have discovered a way of making our predictions less misleading," said weather bureau employee.

"A new system of calculation?" asked the other.

"No. Instead of using the word 'probably' in our announcements, we will use the word 'possibly.'"

NATCHELLY CONTRARY.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "is so natchelly contrary dat de only day dey feels like gittin' out an' doin' a day's work is Sunday."

RULING BY MARTIN REGAN

How Kansas City Politician Suppressed an Attempt to Appeal From Decision of Chair.

A story told of Martin Regan had to do with the days of the old mob primary system in vogue in the politics of Kansas City in the early eighties. In the Sixth ward of those days much of the territory now known as "Little Italy," which in those days was largely inhabited by Irish, Martin's inveterate enemy was Jerry Dowd, who passed over many years ago. In one of the mob primaries in which Martin's nomination as alderman was involved, the Regan faction was the more numerous in the mass meeting at the old Tivoli garden at Independence avenue and Oak street. Regan was elected chairman and after a short speech thanking the meeting for the honor "on behalf of my friends and myself," he proceeded to ask what was the further business of the meeting. Instantly Jerry Dowd was on his feet to protest against Regan's nomination.

"Sit down, Jerry Dowd," yelled Regan. "You are out of order."

"I am not," retorted Dowd, struggling with Regan partisans who were trying to force him down. "Mr. Chairman, Mr. Chairman," he yelled, "I appeal from the decision of the chair."

"Sit down, Jerry Dowd, sit down," replied the alderman. "It takes two-thirds to appeal from the decision of the chair and there's not that many here."

TYPICAL CITY OF AMERICA

Some of the Many and Great Activities of the Municipality of Modern Times.

The typical American city builds, owns and operates bridges, ferries, docks and water supply; has built subways, gives free primary, secondary and higher education to all boys and girls who apply, for which purpose it even maintains free colleges; supports libraries, museums and collections of various kinds, nautical schools and observatories, free public baths, gymnasias, play grounds and athletic fields, with free instruction in swimming, gymnastics and athletics; all this besides its prisons, reformatories, workhouses, almshouses, lodging houses, asylums, laboratories and hospitals of all sorts and kinds. Besides seeing to it that the citizen is law-abiding and moral, the city most carefully protects his health. It inspects his food and drink, attends to its quality, its measurement and weight; it watches over his home or his tenement, sees that he has enough light, air and space and that his sanitary conditions are as they should be. It assumes toward the citizen at his birth the relation of a kind and generous, if somewhat fussy, grandmother, and continues this relationship until he has passed away.—George B. McClellan, in Atlantic.

HAD HIS LAST WISH GRATIFIED.

George Cary Eggleston's "What Happened at Quasi," just published, has special interest in that it was the author's last work and consciously so. Believing that he would not recover from his illness, Mr. Eggleston in a note dictated to his son urged the publishers to hasten an advance copy that he might see the makeup before he died. He was especially anxious to see the dedicatory page, which was to bear a sketch of his little grandson. The author received complete copies of the book while he was yet able to examine them critically.

FOR BROADER COLLEGE WORK.

President Noble of Goucher college said the other day that the possibilities of college women in the way of earning a living are too limited, teaching being the only work for which the course fits them. He thought that as many women are temperamentally unfitted to teach, the course should be broader. Library work, domestic science courses, the work of a secretary were also mentioned.

APPROPRIATE REMEDY.

"What would you recommend me to take for that run-down feeling?"

"I would recommend a pick-me-up."

DISAPPOINTED.

Convalescent—Oh, I'm quite better now, thank ye.

Visitor—Quite better! After my walking over four miles to see you!

—M. A. P.

COUP OF GREAT COLLECTOR

How Charles Wertheimer Bought Furnished House in Order to Get Priceless Chinese Vase.

The late Charles Wertheimer when on one occasion what he considered to be his astute business coup, thought for a while and then "I" on once when he was walking through a Brighton square he espied through an open window what he knew to be a priceless Chinese vase. He went to the nearest postoffice, examined a local directory and found the name of the resident. Then he called and asked for the gentleman and was shown into the study under the name of "Hamilton." He briefly explained that he was looking for a modest house in Brighton and had taken a fancy to this one. Would the gentleman entertain an offer for the place as it stood—"lock, stock and barrel?" The owner, a little nonplussed, hesitated, "If your offer is reasonable," interrupted "Hamilton," "I will give you an extra thousand." "Call tomorrow at 10:30 then," replied the owner. "Hamilton" did and found him prepared to accept £18,000 for the twenty-two years' unexpired term and the contents of the residence.

Although this was well over market value, "Hamilton" at once closed, adding the extra thousand, according to promise. As, however, he afterward sold the vase for £35,000, his coup was unmistakable.

GOOD ONE ON BERNARD SHAW

Cincinnati Librarian Said They Had "All the Works of the Great Buffoon."

"Bernard Shaw's new biography—a biography written by an American—is a piece of work that will win this brilliant playwright the respect he deserves."

The speaker, a Cincinnati poet, smiled.

"Mr. Bernard Shaw is well known," he said, "but not well respected. His profound and serious mind is regarded—dear knows why—as the mind of a trifler."

"For example, I desired the other day to read up a little natural history, and I visited a Cincinnati library to consult the one pre-eminent natural history authority.

"Have you," I said, "the works of the great Buffon?"

"Yes, sir," said the clerk, "we have all the great buffoon's works, sir."

"And he laid before me Shaw's Plays, Pleasant and Unpleasant."

WIT WON FORTUNE.

Talleyrand was nineteen when, on his first arrival in Paris, in 1773, he attended a reception of Mme. du Barry at Versailles. The young men around him were boasting of the favors they had received from the fair sex, and the devastation they had wrought. Talleyrand sat thoughtful and silent. "You say nothing, Sir Abbe," said the lady of the house to him at length. "Ah, no, madame," replied he; "I was indulging in very sad reflections." "And these were?" "How much easier it is in a city like Paris to win women than abbacies." The king, to whom the reply was repeated, is said to have conferred on him the benefit of St. Denis at Rheims, with a yearly revenue of twenty thousand pounds.

FRENCH TRAVELING SHOW.

The traveling showman is commoner in France than in England, particularly in country places. He has almost vanished as an individual from English country fairs; he exists only as the proprietor of galloping horses or boxing saloons or fat lady shows. But at the smaller country fairs in France you may still find the juggler, with his tinsel and tights, and the strong man, and the sometimes quite charming dancer. The most ordinary French crowd has a curiosity about art of any kind unknown in England.—London Chronicle.

SPECIAL TERM FOR COBB CASE

Set For Next Monday July 3rd,

DEFENSE WANTED MORE TIME
Acme Mill Sale On That Date
Will Also Be Passed
On.

The trial of Herbert Cobb charged with the murder of Miss Ella Cravens, his sweetheart, last April, was called yesterday at 10:30, on the arrival of Cobb from Bowling Green. The defendant and his lawyers retired for half an hour, and then reported not ready. Judge Hanberry gave them until 1:00 to prepare for trial. After hearing their reasons the Court continued the case for one week and set it for trial next Monday July 3. The attorneys failed to outline the defense. The term will be extended to try this case and also to pass on the case of the Acme Mills set down for Monday.

Emil Huhn, the Mogul catcher and the best receiver in the League, will be back in the game this week. His right hand was split in the palm, at Cairo, Thursday. He came home Friday for a week's lay off.

Cooper, Clarksville's fast second baseman, has recovered from his spike injury and is back in the game.

Clarksville lost every game played from June 15 to June 24, nine straight.

Home again, with three losses, first place secure and Huhn on the injured list.

Clarksville will be our opponents from July 3 to July 8.

Jones led the team in batting on the trip, with .350. Kessing came second, just a bit below Jones. This does not include the pitchers.

Wahl pitched a shut-out game Saturday.

From reports, it seems that Henderson is becoming very interested in the Kitty, and is supporting the team better than was expected.

The Paducah Sun says that Huhn passed through Paducah, Thursday, and that he did not know about his being offered for sale to the Paducah club. No, nor did any body else know of such a thing. Paducah might safely offer two or three of her banks, her whole team, and that famous chief Harry Lloyd as a trade for Huhn, and then know that they would be turned down. Of course, if Paducah had Zeke Taylor, and should offer him, as a trade for Huhn we would grab (?) at the offer.

Conklin is the only one of the original umpires still at work. He was with Fulton and Clarksville last week.

Yon and Smith, our new catcher, will be the Moguls' battery.

Yon, Bailey, Johnson, McArthur, is the rotation in which our pitchers perform.

Henderson is doing fine.

Just Half in Bed.

Clyde, Ky.—Mrs. I. A. Decker, writes from Clyde: "I recommend Cardui, the woman's tonic, to any woman in need of a remedy. For five years, I was unable to do my own work. Half my time was spent in bed. At last I tried Cardui. Now I am well and happy, and can do my own work." Don't suffer pain, headache, backache, and womanly miseries, when your own druggist has on his shelf a remedy for such troubles—Cardui. Get a bottle for your self. As a general tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found for 50 years that would take its place. Try it. It will help you.
